

Student A - Speaking Questions

Instructions: Ask Student B these questions one by one. Listen carefully to their answers and ask follow-up questions to understand their reasons.

1. Would you rather live in a very modern apartment in the city center, or a more traditional house in the suburbs with a garden? Why?
  2. Would you rather spend your free evening at home relaxing, or go out to a social event? Why?
  3. Would you rather travel to a very hot and sunny beach destination, or a colder, mountainous region for skiing or hiking? What kind of climate do you prefer for holidays?
  4. Would you rather work in a team, or work independently on projects? Why?
  5. Would you rather be known for your intelligence, or your sense of humor?
-

Student B - Speaking Questions

Instructions: Ask Student A these questions one by one. Listen carefully to their answers and ask follow-up questions to understand their reasons.

1. Would you rather start your day with a leisurely breakfast and no rush, or wake up early and get straight to work or your tasks? Explain your morning routine preference.
2. Would you rather watch a movie at a cinema, or stream it at home? What are the advantages of each for you?
3. Would you rather visit a tropical island with white sand beaches, or a European city rich in history and architecture? What type of holiday destination appeals to you more?
4. Would you rather have a job with a higher salary but less job satisfaction, or a lower salary but more fulfilling work?
5. Would you rather have a lot of acquaintances, or a few very close friends?